EASTER SURPRISE!

Each Easter, we hear the same story of shock and surprise experienced by everyone at the empty tomb as well as by the appearance of the Risen Christ. Every year. What a surprise it is though, the surprise that changed the lives of the first disciples, and changes our lives. The surprise of God's grace, God's love given to us and for us, the gift of life, both here and now, promised for all eternity. No other surprise can be so transformative.

Surprises can be fun—such as the year I turned 50 and was surprised with an amazing birthday party! Totally unsuspecting, the congregation I served put together a lovely summertime potluck with my favorite cake (before gluten sensitivity!) They even invited my parents who surprised me that Sunday with an unexpected appearance at worship. Surprises can be so lovely; and admittedly there are some which are not so happy—sudden death, car accidents, or diagnosis. By their very nature surprises catch us unaware, maybe unprepared by the changes our lives will experience. Yet we know the truth of surprise, God is in it! Always, God is with us, just as God in Christ Jesus changed the world with the surprise of the Resurrected Christ.

The stories we hear in the weeks following Easter's Resurrection are full of surprise, especially as told in the Acts of the Apostles. From Jesus' appearances as the risen Lord, to the wind of Pentecost blowing and giving the disciples a new language and hearing, to the ways lives were totally transformed, thinking of Paul in particular, but also all the people baptized and living as the family of faith, the surprise of the Resurrection sets off a change of events that continue to this day.

We who are baptized live a new life. Each year following Easter Day, we have the season of Easter. In that time we celebrate and give thanks to God for our baptism. This year as we end the season of Easter, we will celebrate Pentecost with those middle-school students who are re-affirming their own baptisms. We will join them in the words of affirmation and we will continue to explore what it means to live our baptism in our lives, no matter our age or stage of life.

Easter catches those first disciples unaware, and changes them forever. God gives them not only a new vocation, but new ways of living life in community. God works mighty acts of transformation in those first disciples, empowering them to tell the story of Jesus, to share the good news with those they meet, and to be open to the power of God leading and guiding them. They develop the spiritual habit of welcoming the unpredictable and surprising God, and wrestle with the promptings of the Spirit and the changes to their understanding of their religion and how it is lived out.

We too, as disciples of Jesus, have been transformed by God's mighty acts of surprise. Our lives are different because we have met the risen Christ. We too can cultivate the spiritual practice and habit of welcoming the unpredictable and surprising God, and wrestling with the changes the Holy Spirit prompts in us and our faith community.

Perhaps in this season you will undertake doing some acts of love and surprise in the world. You might pay for a stranger's lunch or treat a friend to a surprise dinner out. Invite someone you do not know well to join you for a walk on the greenway to find out more. If you see a first responder out in public, thank them for the job they do. Thank a teacher, a medical professional, your mail carrier, or the garbage man for the job they do, surprise them with a small treat.

Most of all though, listen for God and all the many ways God surprises us with love, grace, and peace. Give thanks daily for those small or large surprises.

In Christ's love,

Pastor Angela

IN SEARCH OF PAUL

Below is a map of where Pastor Angela will be on her pilgrimage in Turkey and Greece, in search of the origins, the culture, the place that gave rise to Christianity and to the Apostle Paul. She is traveling with a variety of people from across the United States, all Lutherans, who wish to explore their faith and the ancient letters written by Paul, who proclaims himself least of the apostles, yet one called by the Lord himself to go on mission to the non-Jews, the gentiles. She will return to the church office on May 14, following this time of faith development. Please keep her and the group of pilgrims who are walking in the footsteps of Paul in your prayers.

COFFEE GIVEAWAY

Tuesday, May 7, 6:30- 9:00 a.m. Share coffee and muffins, good will and fellowship with our neighbors those who are driving by the church and might stop by for coffee and conversation. All are welcome and encouraged to join this valuable ministry. If you would like to help, please let us know or just show up.

LUTHEROAD SUMMER CAMP

Lutheroad Summer Camp is June 24-28. A full day experience is being offered from 7am-6pm for those families who work. Camp itself will run from 9-4, and other care will cover the rest. Activities including a field trip, an Animal Encounter, learning about honey bees, and a theme of Peace Works make this camp a wonderful opportunity for your kids, grandkids, or neighbors and friends. Spread the word to families still looking for a week of camp this summer. We have 7 spots open now and hope to fill our camp. See the website to register or for more information.

Pastor Angela

I would like to thank all of the members of the Altar Guild team for their tireless work each and every week. They work so hard to prepare our sanctuary, altar, and communion tables so that we can celebrate the sacraments that mean so very much to us. During Easter and Christmas they work diligently to make our sanctuary beautiful with flowers and candles. If you see one of the team, stop a moment and thank them for their hard and selfless work.

The altar guild team is Margaret and Russ Krause, Linda Frixen, Linda Honeycutt, Lillian Stephens, Cathy Lyall, Alice Jenkins, Anita Mitchell, Lorene Thom, Pam Williams, Janet Mayer, Janet Wagstaff, Margaret Conrad, Jean Dunne and Sherry Wooldridge.

And, we always have room for more members! Please consider this important ministry at Living Saviour Lutheran Church! If you would like to be a part of the team, please see me or send me an email at (stitchwitch@carolina.rr.com).

LIVELY LEGACY LUNCHEON MAY 21:

We've invited Deacon Mitzie Schafer to come back to Living Saviour on Tuesday, May 21. At 10:30 she will explain how she works with individuals and couples to identify and think about assets they may want to leave to their families and what they may prefer to leave as a legacy to their favorite Lutheran and Non-Lutheran charities. She explains how she helps congregations with their ministry funding needs and helps them update their financial needs and wants lists.

Having that list was very helpful to your church leadership over the past year. Because of your input, we have added a hand rail to the lower elevator entrance, more handicapped parking, smoothed out the front sidewalk, and brightened our sanctuary with a new pascal candle, altar desk, and much better lighting! Thank you to those who provided input that helped us fulfill these needs.

Mitzie isn't selling anything so no one will be pressured by her. She is provided by the ELCA and the NC and SC Synods at no charge to congregations. Moreover, Mitzie is a fun, informative speaker who is so popular we couldn't get a spot on her Sunday calendar until next year! Our apologies to working folks who may not be able to attend her session this year on May 21. For those of you who can attend, however, we know you will enjoy her. Closer to her arrival date we will ask for you to sign up for the event so we can provide you with lunch.

MAY 19TH CELEBRATION FOR JOSH

It is with mixed emotions that we announce that Josh Wullenweber has let us know his time with us is coming to an end. Josh is a Seminary Field Education Student who has volunteered with our congregation as an assistant minister, bible study participant and teacher, sharing and caring group facilitator, and occasional preacher, among other activities, for the last two years. Next year is Josh's final year at the seminary. His other responsibilities will preclude him from serving with us. Although we are sad that he is leaving and will miss having him with us, we are happy that he will be entering the final phase of his ministry studies.

Please plan to celebrate Josh and his ministry at Living Saviour on Sunday, May 19, between the two services. Take time to write him notes of remembrance and thanks during these next weeks. And of course, pray for him and Heather in their next new chapter together as Josh finishes his studies and goes on to become a rostered minister.

Giving thanks to God for all the gifts He pours out on His church, including this time we've enjoyed with Josh!

LOOP SYSTEM

CAN YOU HEAR US?

Ten years ago, Christina Seaborg, Doctor of Audiology, donated a Loop System for hearing aids to Living Saviour and facilitated its installation in our Sanctuary. Hearing Aids with an optional T-coil or tele-coil setting can be switched to that setting to pick up speaker sounds in our Sanctuary over this Loop system as an alternative way to hear the voices and music amplified by our microphones.

Thanks to Ray and Glenda Kilminster, Dr. Seaborg came to Living Saviour recently. She tested the sound levels and reported that the Loop system is working properly with the new speakers installed last year. She could hear well over the Loop system in all the seating areas she tested surrounding the altar near the front and sides of the sanctuary. She suggested that if people with a loop setting on their hearing aids are having trouble hearing with it, they might try moving one or two rows forward or backwards and/or revisiting their audiologist to see if an adjustment might boost the loop setting on their hearing aids.

WEDNESDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY

Throughout the month of April, the Wednesday Bible Study group has used Inspired by Rachel Held Evans to take a fresh look at some of Scripture's most memorable stories. We have talked about things like the Creation Narrative and how it is that story that tells us who we are and where we come from. We have also discussed the story of Abraham, Sarah, and Hagar; but this time we read the narrative through the eyes of Hagar, which was very insightful.

We are just getting started and have several more chapters to go. Please join us, if you are interested as we explore, re-explore, and look at Scripture with fresh eyes.

We meet every Wednesday at 10:00 a.m. in the education wing. We hope to see you there!

COUNTDOWN TO SUMMER IV

Countdown IV isn't that far away – May 18 – and the organizing committee hopes you have the date on your calendar. We don't want YOU or your family to miss the fun and fellowship. But we also have a special challenge to every disciple who knows the fun of Countdown.

Invite and bring at least one friend or neighbor or a friend of your child or grandchild to Countdown this year. They can't know the fun they're missing if YOU DON'T INVITE THEM. If they come, we believe they'll be hooked on Countdown and maybe other events and activities at Living Saviour.

Here's an idea. Tell them they have to see – all free of charge:

1. A new pet show called Exotic Encounters, which recently thrilled the students, parents and staff of our preschool.
2. Two professional clowns, making fun balloon shapes for children and laughs for everyone.
3. The return of Nancy Mersereau's lively student chorus from Sterling Elementary School.
4. The huge bounce house, made possible by our own preschool.
5. Our own Traci Warren Anderson, who is a published poet, is creating a "poetry corner" where she'll offer guidance to anyone who has thought about writing.

That's just some of the fun that will keep everyone busy from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. that Saturday. We'll have a ton of games – inside and outside the church – and kids (age no specified) collect tickets at each game to turn in for free prizes.

Enjoy a free hotdog lunch, as well as popcorn and snow cones, which hit the spot on a hot day in May.

Visit with your local police officers, firefighters and MEDIC staff and climb on the big fire truck. Shoot balloon targets with a Zing Bow. Get your face painted and play cornhole. If you are interested in volunteering, talk to Pastor or others you know are involved in Countdown. You won't be disappointed, and you'll better understand our mission to reach out to people who don't know us and show the love of God and the love of Christian community.

If you have any questions, please contact Frank DeLoache at frank.deloache@yahoo.com
