JUNE 2019

Wow! The time I spent in Greece and Turkey on pilgrimage was fantastic. I learned so much; and am renewed and eager to teach, preach, and help you gain a new perspective and appreciation for St. Paul, Christianity's earliest days, and how they impact our lives today. One of the main questions our pilgrimage group began to study concerned the Emperor, power, status in the Roman era.

Power, supremacy, authority, titles. "Divine, Son of God, God, and God from God; Lord, Redeemer, Liberator, and Saviour of the World." Don't these all sound familiar to us today? We often use them in worship and prayer as titles referring to God, and God's son, Jesus Christ. Yet these titles were first used to denote Caesar the Augustus—Emperor of the Roman Empire! Imagine how a tiny band of followers, who were not powerful people in government or religion began using these titles to refer to a man put to death on a Roman torture device (the cross). Imagine how scared they may have been, or how empowered by God to proclaim the message of hope and salvation in God who is, who was, and who promises to always be. Imagine how the leaders and powerful ones reacted!

The Empire into which Paul went was one in which the Emperor's power and status was engraved on coins, on buildings, carved into statues, worshipped in temples, where sacrifice offerings were regularly made. In my travels through Greece and Turkey, I saw the remains of those temples, statues, and offering places. I saw how the Emperor, as well as the powerful and wealthy who had status, controlled every aspect of life. Religion and Emperor-worship were inescapable. Life was regulated for women, children, slaves, and craftsmen, those the Empire conquered, and those born into it. Everyone had a place, a role, a function.

Christ-followers interrupted that system. Paul was a true radical, utterly transformed through the encounter with the Resurrected Christ. Paul the true radical, believed in a new order, a new life, the power of God. If you think about it, from fledgling beginnings, to the millions of followers today, the power of God is undeniable. Yet into this 21st century we know that Christ-followers are fewer in America than ever before, so we must wonder together what does this mean for us at Living Saviour, for God's Church, for the future of Christ-followers.

Paul and the other apostles offered a vastly different way of life, one that contrasted significantly to the Roman culture. Women and children were valued as persons of worth; slaves and slave owners were considered equal in the eyes of God; no one held more status than anyone else, no matter their employment, position or wealth. These values attracted the "God-fearers" those who were interested in Judaism but were not Jews, and the religious pagans, "seekers" we might call them today. From these humble origins, Christianity was born.

An article I read recently by Mark Tidsworth, author of the SHIFT materials wondered about how churches have gotten away from being Christ-followers living the way of Jesus, to be more concerned about growth in numbers. While numbers of members are important simply from the standpoint of paying bills, as a pastor, I am more concerned about the individual spiritual growth of those who are part of this congregation—member or not. As a Christ-follower, I want to live, model, and teach these ways of living Jesus showed us, Paul preached, and the earliest disciples exhibited. Those ways are what grew the earliest church numbers because they were so different! The earliest followers faced significant persecution, death threats, ostracizing from families, friends, and business. To choose to follow Jesus meant a new way of life. Life today for those who do not know Christ and who become Christ followers is much like the earliest days, it means exchanging old life habits for new ones; and perhaps even being ostracized by friends or family.

As we move into the summer and begin planning for our upcoming educational year, we will be listening to feedback from the Shift small group meetings and prayerfully discerning what God is up to in our community and in this congregation. What can we learn about what it means today to choose to follow, what habits do we need to take on, what habits do we need to let go, what spiritual practices can we become more skilled?

I am excited to consider anew what it means to be Jesus' follower. You are invited to come along on the journey and grow in faith and maturity. Together let us see where God is leading.

In Christ's love,
Pastor Angela

COUNTDOWN TO SUMMER 1V

I can't begin to list all the people who worked hard and gave so much to make Countdown IV happen. Tom Schick, who got writer's cramp making out all those name tags, and I estimate 275 people -- us and neighbors -- took part on May 18.

Special thanks to Polly and John Farris for introducing wonderful, friendly clowns to our event for the first time. I know several children weren't sure they wanted to meet a clown, but Polly and John won them over. I sure hope you'll consider returning for Countdown V.

Also, thanks to Alexandra Coglianese and her daughters and the animals of Exotic Encounters. A great highlight to our party -- and another opportunity for all of us to grow in our appreciation and care of all earth's creatures. Please return next year.

Also to Eric Forster and his neighbor who provided the inflatable bowling game, completely out of the blue.

Thanks to Traci Warren Anderson, our community poet-in-residence, and Will Charnock for introducing their creativity and imagination to countdown. And, to Tom Chriske for his contribution of creativity in hundreds of wonderful pictures capturing our love for each other.

The support of Jessica Jordan and her staff of the preschool has helped transform Countdown in the past two years. More than the bounce house -- which is great in itself -- they have encouraged their children and families to attend. And I feel like our communities become one on Countdown each year.

I hope Nancy Mersereau can continue to bring her wonderful singing students (and their parents and grandparents) from Sterling Elementary. They are an essential part of the diversity that has enriched Countdown, and I celebrate the love you -- all our volunteers -- show to the growing number of neighbors who visit. AND, I hope you felt the love they gave in return. And I hope Eric, Brian Powell, Steve Axtman, Wayne Thom and Bob Fleischacker will promise to see that monstrous, no-longer-ugly tarp sign go up again in 2020. (Art Lange has promised to help talk to his buddies in blue about the sign-code violation. Great to have friends in earthly high places.)

All those I haven't named know who you are and how much you mean to the Outreach Ministry of this community of disciples. You are the faces of God's love in the world. Bless you and amen,

Frank DeLoache

Celebrating A Humble Community of Faith Overflowing with Generosity for Others

FOR IT IS IN GIVING THAT WE RECEIVE.

The Church today exists because those who preceded us made serving God and helping others a priority and generously shared everything they could with the entire community. The Apostle Paul details how early church followers shared what little they had with each other. The Acts of the Apostles describes how that generous spirit enabled the early Christian Church to grow from small clusters of Believers to be embraced by entire regions.

Living Saviour today resembles the early church in so many ways. The LSLC Community of Faith today are Stewards of what has been built up over the past 40 years. We don't close our doors to keep the world from sharing what treasures, physical and spiritual, our time and talents have created here. We throw open our doors to the greater community inviting them to share what God has graced us with. In 2018 we shared almost 900 pounds of food with Loves and Fishes and through May 15 we have delivered almost 500 pounds so far to go to people in need. Countdown to Summer IV threw open our doors for people from the community to share our hospitality. Some of those attending remarked how kid friendly and family oriented the church is! The list of out-reach activities to those in need goes on and on. We travel around the area to reach out to others who need food at school or clothes and supplies for basic supplies to live in so many ways; our benevolence to the ELCA is distributed around the world to victims of floods and wars.

We wanted to ensure that you take a moment between finishing one activity to go on to the next to reflect on and celebrate how much our Family of Faith impacts those around us and to say simply "Thank You."

"For it is in giving that we receive" St. Francis of Assisi

To Our Living Saviour Family,

Heather and I wanted to extend our most sincere thanks and gratitude for your heartwarming messages and cards as well as your ever so generous financial gift. It has been a privilege and honor to learn and grow with all of you over these past two years. I have been truly blessed to have had the opportunity to serve alongside such amazing people. I could not have asked for a more loving, understanding, and generous group of people to serve beside, and I give thanks for our time together. It is a bittersweet moment to have to sign off as your Field Education student, but I look forward to dropping in periodically to worship with you in the future. I pray that God continues to bless each and every one of you, and again, thank you from the bottom of my heart for everything.

Yours in Christ,

Josh

SIMPLY GIVING: If you would like to try electronic Simply Giving, you can get a form to fill out from the church office, or go to the LSLC website, www.livingsaviourlc.org, click on "Online Giving" in the upper right corner. RESULTS FOR 1ST QUARTER OF FISCAL YEAR ENDING JANUARY, 2020

Below is a brief report for the Fiscal Year ending January 31, 2020; as of the end of April (which is our third month of the fiscal year). We had a net income of $28,499, which is the result of being over on contributions and under on expenses, relative to the budget forecast.

I have taken a 'relook' at my contribution forecast to see why we are doing better than predicted. Our pledge income has come in earlier than I expected. It is great to have the pledge income come in early! That doesn't necessarily mean, however, that we will have a positive variance on our pledge income by the end of the year.

Furthermore, we are doing much better on non-pledge income than I predicted. Non-pledge income is from people who didn't turn in a pledge as well as visitors and new members. Both are doing better than I expected. Although I do my best to give an accurate forecast of contribution income without being conservative or aggressive in my estimates, predictions are more accurate when more statements of intent are turned in.

In addition to the good results for contribution income for this quarter, we are under on expenses. Some of the expense variance, $1,384, is associated with utilities, which is a good thing!

I do believe that we are going to do better than we budgeted and at this stage, think we can break even by the end of the year.

As the year progresses, I will continue to look at our performance compared to budget.

General Fund	Actual Feb-Apr	Budget Feb-Apr	1 st Qtr Comparison
Contributions, etc.	$129,349	$105,907	$23,442
Expenses	93,804	98,861	5,057
Net Income (loss)	$35,545	$7,045	28,499

Forward from Forty	Actual
Transfers in (from Capital Reserves)	$ 7,611
Income to date	60,986
Expenses to date	(13,194)
Balance	$ 55,403

This report shows a decrease in the amount of income to the Forward from Forty fund of about $5,000 from what was reported last month. This is due to an accounting correction: a change in a contribution received in March from the Forward from Forty fund to the General Fund (net of contributions received for the Forward from Forty fund).

Contributions to Forward from Forty include a contribution of $20,000 from Preschool.

Expenses were for the Canopy Education building, Drain installation, Fire Panel replacement and telephone system replacement.

WEDNESDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY

Happy summertime to everyone!

We have finished the book "Inspired" by Rachel Held Evans. We were saddened by her death a few weeks ago at the young age of 37. We have read some of the Bible stories with a new understanding.

We will be on break until September. Your assignment for the next couple of months is as follows:.....Think about what you would like to explore in September and give me your suggestions. "Manna and Mercy" has been suggested. We studied that in 2015.

Robin has mentioned a study on Psalm 23. I have a couple studies I ordered last fall, but I haven't had a chance to review them, yet. One is "The Rock, the Road, and the Rabbi," by Kathie Lee Gifford, and the other is "Twelve More Women of the Bible," written by several authors. It is life changing stories for women today.

Please share your thoughts on these and give me any other suggestions.

Have a wonderful blessed summer.

Janet Mayer

PRAYING FOR POSSIBILITIES

Our Mission is to Grow God's kingdom through the power of prayer. We pray for the possibilities that can happen in and of our building; for all the people volunteering, working and participating here, activities for all, visitors and those that God gathers and the opportunities for witnessing. Ideally, we walk the property to pray for the possibilities that can happen in each place. If you cannot walk it or be there with us, we have made booklets with pictures for you to use. So, please join us! For more information, contact glendakilminster@gmail.com.

IN THE LUTHERAN CHURCH, WORSHIP AND MUSIC are closely tied together. Perhaps Martin Luther, himself, said it best, “After all, the gift of language combined with the gift of song was only given to man to let him know that he should praise God with both word and music, namely, by proclaiming [the Word of God] through music.” Items of note in Worship and Music during that past half year or so include:

Gifts in memoriam including a new Christ Candle and brass stand, a brass altar desk and the eternal flame that beautify our Sanctuary have been graciously donated to honor our brothers and sisters in Christ who have gone before us.

A new keyboard was purchased, thanks to a generous gift, which can mimic almost any instrument in a large orchestra. You might have already heard a cello accompany the Chancel Choir in one musical offering.

Our Worship Service of Advent and Christmas Music nearly filled the sanctuary with joyful singers and worshipers despite the terrible weather outside, and about 130 have viewed the Worship Service web stream. Soli Deo Gloria StarClaire House of Flowers Florist now supplies the flowers, which beautify our worship space each Sunday. The arrangements are spectacular, and we thank all who donate flowers on a weekly basis.

The Choir SHIFT Group completed the 10 “Making the SHIFT” sessions prior to Palm Sunday. The consensus was that the program was valuable and gave us key insights as Living Saviour moves forward into the 21st Century. We have many ideas we look forward to sharing at our SHIFT review meeting on June 9.

Our second Unity Sunday and Potluck luncheon in 2019 will happen on June 30 with one service at 10:30 a.m., immediately followed by the luncheon. About 100 of you, and your guests, joined us on our March 31st. You filled over 5 tables with wonderful food, and filled the Fellowship Hall with laughter, conversation and fun. All are welcome, so please join us on June 30th. The picture is from the March 31st luncheon.

We look forward to June 2, Church Music Sunday, which is a tradition in the ELCA and recognizes the important place music has in our worship and praise of God. Both services, as usual, will have their own, unique forms of music that day. Please make a point to join us then and fill the Sanctuary to the rafters with loud songs and praise.

We give thanks for Don Huff and his music leadership, and all our musicians, and worship leaders and volunteers. As always, we invite anyone from younger to older to join one of our choirs or provide their music talents in some way for either service. We also invite anyone who would like to join the teams from the Altar Guild, the Usher/Greeters, the Communion Assistants, or the Assisting Ministers on a rotating basis. You will be amazed at how much volunteering and serving in these capacities enriches your worship experience and brings you closer to God.

Yours in Christ,

Steve Vick, Council Representative for Worship and Music

SMITHFIELD TEACHING MATERIAL MAKERS

For the past five years our church members have provided a huge number of items in all areas of the kindergarten curriculum. Each subject is multifaceted. We made as many facets as we could in the following subjects: reading, writing, math, handwriting, fine and gross motor skills, focus, sensory, auditory, visual, tactile in an engaging and fun way, by presenting concepts in several different learning styles. The teachers have appreciated all materials that we made for their students, and have pronounced them helpful and kid friendly.

As of the end of this school year, I am stepping down as leader of the Smithfield Teacher Materials Makers. I would like to thank all who worked on our projects these past five years. I wish I could include each person by name, but with my memory being what it is now, I'm afraid I would leave someone out. I do want to thank Caren Ballantine, especially, for her enthusiasm and unflagging support of this outreach. She also arranged the dates and times for all of the workshops, and provided most of the tennis canisters that were used in various projects. Thank you, too, Alice Jenkins, for supporting us by coming to many workshops and scheduling some of Hope Circle meeting times for workshops.
