

Psalm 107:1-3, 23-32

¹O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
for his steadfast love endures forever.

²Let the redeemed of the LORD say so,
those he redeemed from trouble

³and gathered in from the lands,
from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south.

²³Some went down to the sea in ships,
doing business on the mighty waters;

²⁴they saw the deeds of the LORD,
his wondrous works in the deep.

²⁵For he commanded and raised the stormy wind,
which lifted up the waves of the sea.

²⁶They mounted up to heaven, they went down to the depths;
their courage melted away in their calamity;

²⁷they reeled and staggered like drunkards,
and were at their wits' end.

²⁸Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble,
and he brought them out from their distress;

²⁹he made the storm be still,
and the waves of the sea were hushed.

³⁰Then they were glad because they had quiet,
and he brought them to their desired haven.

³¹Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love,
for his wonderful works to humankind.

³²Let them extol him in the congregation of the people,
and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

Gospel: Mark 4:35-41

³⁵When evening had come, [Jesus said to the disciples,] "Let us go across to the other side." ³⁶And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. ³⁷A great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. ³⁸But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" ³⁹He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. ⁴⁰He said to them, "Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?" ⁴¹And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"
